How bitsIO ensures proper configuration of your Splunk environment

bitsIO follows Splunk’s specific order of operations to ensure the system is able to be managed using best practices.

From simple installations to multi-cluster environments, bitsIO is the trusted partner to stand up your Splunk instance.

Splunk Technology Add-ons

bitsIO can also set up and configure splunk based TAs and validate data coming in to make sure it is coming in correctly. We take Splunk based TAs a step further in assigning data to proper indexes to allow faster and better process searches.
